

Winter sunshine

By Amilia Preston

As long as the sun is beaming

Down on me

I know you can never

Touch me my night terror

Never again

Will you be able to put

A dark cloud over my head

Tell me I don't deserve to see the sun

When my sunshine

I know you will do everything to make sure

I'm stood in your rays

Giving me all your warmth

Even if that leaves you

Cold and lifeless

I promise I promise I promise

To share my warmth with you

We will keep each other safe from

The dark clouds over head
